

Software Preservation Network

Saving Software, Together.

SPN is a collective action effort ensuring long-term access to software through community engagement, infrastructure support, and knowledge generation.

Learn more about our growing community of practice and how to get involved at:
bit.ly/spn-get-involved

Why You Should Join Us

Lead the increasingly critical field of software preservation

Sustain and amplify the impact of your existing investments in digital curation

Accomplish together what cannot be accomplished alone

Exclusive access to EaaSI Beta Hosted Service 2020-2021

Member Services

Ownership and control over SPN Strategic Directions

Opportunity to drive the Software Preservation Law & Policy Agenda

Tool development and management

Professional development via facilitated events and networking opportunities

How to Get in Touch

 <https://softwarepreservationnetwork.org/>

 jess.farrell@educopia.org

 @SoftPresNetwork

Resources

Freely Available:

- Software Preservation Quarterly Community Forum Recordings (8)
- Software Preservation and Emulation Webinar Recordings (19)
- Reports from Affiliated Projects: EaaSI, FCoP, and Code of Best Practices for Fair Use (18)

Member Resources:

- Subscription to a dedicated SPN member mailing list
- Ability to self-nominate or be elected to governance committees
- Opportunity to participate in pilot project to explore feasibility of offering scaled, high-quality emulation services via the EaaSI project
- Design, publication, and marketing services
- Access to a robust, responsive backbone staff
- Opportunities to network with colleagues from design firms, public libraries, museums, research data archives, university libraries, and the OSS community